SYNOD ASSEMBLY SUMMARY

"BRINGING LIGHT INTO DARKNESS: A LUTHERAN RESPONSE TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE"

by Deloris Knutson & Donene Blair

Bishop Knutson Re-elected

Bishop Lowell Knutson received strong affirmation for his first term as Bishop of the NWWA Synod when he was re-elected with 271 of 394 votes on the first ballot. He received a standing ovation when the results were announced, and asked his wife, Shirley, to join him at the podium. "God gives many gifts, and one of the greatest gifts is my wife, Shirley," he said. He also gratefully acknowledged the support he has received from former bishops.

Twenty-nine Resolutions Considered

This year the April 1st deadline for submitting resolutions was met by those submitting 26 of the 29 resolutions considered at the Assembly. The final three resolutions concerning Archbishop Raymond Hunthausen, the ELCA Office of Worship budget cuts, and a resolution of thanks, were presented to the Assembly members as timely and germane. Please contact your congregation's delegates to obtain information concerning these resolutions. At the Assembly your delegates were able to voice their opinions and those of the congregations and agencies they represented through the synod's legislative process.

Assembly Theme Empowers Participants

The theme of domestic violence was a powerful and emotional one for the delegates. We were wrapped in the arms of the cross through the Assembly banner, designed and constructed by Jannie Adams of Grace, Bellevue. The banner included the Assembly logo designed by Carol Read of Sammamish Hills, Redmond. We were warmed by the increasing light of the candles burning on our tables throughout the Assembly. We were surrounded by 150 quilts, 105 teddy bears, and other stuffed animals, toys and books, generously donated by many of our congregations. These gifts were distributed to the following organizations:

Broadview Emergency Shelter for Women, Seattle
Catherine Booth Lodge, Seattle
Eastside Domestic Violence, Bellevue
Everett Police Department's "Teddy Bear Patrol"
Luther Child Center, Everett
Lutheran Compass Center Women's Shelter, Seattle
New Beginnings Shelter, Seattle
Pathways for Women, Mountlake Terrace
Skagit Rape Relief and Battered Women's Shelter, Mt. Vernon
Womencare Shelter for Battered Women, Bellingham

Speakers Keynote Domestic Violence

MARY PELLAUER of the ELCA Commission for Women provided us with information about domestic violence, including the cycle of abuse and suggestions on how to listen to the painful stories of those experiencing abuse. She also facilitated a panel of individuals from our area who shared their stories of surviving violence, and the added grief for them of not having the support and comfort of their churches.

ELIZABETH BETTENHAUSEN, feminist theologian, discussed the assumptions we make in the church about hierarchy, rules, and obedience; the reasons for silence about abuses within our congregations; and what we can do to break the silence. She said, "As Jesus healed the bent-over woman on the Sabbath, so, too, we must bend our theology. We must dare to risk to find Jesus in the synoptic gospels as well as in Romans and Revelations."

How Can We Respond?

Our hope is that from this Assembly our congregations will begin to hear the stories of their people in compassionate and caring ways, and will respond by creating safe havens for all people. We hope that the pastors and lay professionals in our congregations will participate in the "Workshops of Professional Ethics: Sexual Abuse by Clergy and other Ministers" which the Synod committed to provide. We hope that people committed to creating safety within our church communities will come forward to work with a project team, providing leadership to our congregations under the auspices of the Board of Social Concerns. We hope that congregations will respond to the AWAKENINGS Process which will begin this fall. This is a process where each congregation creates a climate for dialogue where scripture and Lutheran teachings are examined in light of the hurt, cry, pain, and hope of people.

We would appreciate your sharing with us your thoughts, concerns, feelings, and actions following our Assembly. Please call or write the Synod Office with the stories of hope and transformation in your community.

Thank You's Received

Notes of appreciation for the quilts, teddy bears, and toys from the Assembly have been received from Luther Child Center in Everett, Skagit Rape Relief and Battered Women's Services in Mount Vernon, and the Womencare Shelter in Bellingham. A certificate (see below) was also received from the Everett Police Teddy Bear Patrol.

Womencare Shelter writes: Thank you so much for the wonderful quilts, blankets and toys donated to our shelter. These are items that we continually need to replenish. We like to send toys and bedding with residents when they leave if they need them. We commend you on your recent work around domestic violence. It is an issue we all must work together on to combat. We strongly believe that education about domestic violence can help end the cycle of abuse. We appreciate your generous support. You will indeed bring light to those we serve!

Certificate Of Appreciation

This is to certify that the Convention of the Northwest Washington
Synod of the Lutheran Church has graciously donated to our Teddy Bear Zoo for the purpose of assisting our abused and frightened children.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

1990 ASSEMBLY PICTORIAL DIRECTORY

Have you been wondering whatever happened to the pictorial directory from the 1990 Synod Assembly at PLU? That directory, when produced, was very poorly done, and both the Northwest and Southwestern Washington Synods refused to accept it.

CLERGY "FAM" TRIP TO THE HOLY LAND

Keystone Travel Service is again offering special Clergy Familiarization "FAM" trips to the Holy Land in conjunction with the Church of the Holy Redeemer in the Old City in the fall of 1991 and spring of 1992. The 1991 program was canceled due to the Gulf Crisis.

Three programs are announced, beginning November 5, 1991, and January 15 and 29, 1992. All programs are for 11 days and originate in New York City. Cost for clergy is $1035 and for non-clergy $1635. For additional information, call 1-800-642-0682.

SEARCH BIBLE STUDIES LEADERSHIP TRAINING

A new SEARCH Weekly Bible Studies training, using Area Consultants, provides an economical way of preparing congregational leaders within each church setting. The SEARCH consultant is available to conduct a six-hour training orientation event on site for $150.00. The training enables local leaders to implement the program of Bible presentations, small group leadership, and coordination. The program emphasizes lay leadership, utilizing a local coordinator, Bible lesson presenter, and small group leader.

The SEARCH training is also available to congregations previously involved in SEARCH and in need of developing new congregational leadership. For more information, contact SEARCH Area Consultant, Marcia Olson, 7510 California Ave SW, Seattle, WA 98136; 937-3765.

A REQUEST FROM THE LITE OFFICE

Dr. Walt Pilgrim, Director of the Lutheran Institute of Theological Education, would like names of Asians who have membership in our congregations to be able to communicate with them. Please send names and addresses to LITE, Pacific Lutheran University, Tacoma, WA 98447; or phone, 535-7342.

CHURCH YELLOW PAGES LISTINGS

When it comes time for your congregation to renew or revise your listing in the Yellow Pages, please be sure you are listed under the category "CHURCHES--LUTHERAN ELCA", and not simply "Churches--Lutheran", where a variety of Lutheran churches are listed. Thank you!

DR. MALVIN H. LUNDEEN DIES

The Rev. Dr. Malvin Hjalmar Lundeen died on Saturday, May 25, 1991. On May 29 he would have observed his 90th birthday. His service was held in Sun City, Arizona on May 31, and a memorial service was held June 4 in LaGrange, Illinois.

Dr. Lundeen served as secretary of the LCA from 1962 through 1968. Prior to that he was president of the Augustana Lutheran Church from 1959 to 1962. In 1968 he became assistant to the president of the LCA's Minnesota Synod, a position he held until his retirement in 1973. He also served for a time as president of the Lutheran Council in the USA, and as a member of the general board of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA. He chaired the Joint Commission on Lutheran Unity.

NEW REGION I STEWARDSHIP SPECIALIST

The Rev. Michael L. Meier from Sitka Lutheran in Sitka, Alaska, has accepted the position of Deployed Stewardship Specialist for Region 1, following Pastor Bob Armstrong's retirement. Pastor Meier will begin his work on July 1.

OUR SUPPORT OF THE REGION I OFFICE

One of the most vital of our synod's budget line items concerns our support of the Region I Office in Seattle. Much of our synod/congregational programmatic ministry comes from that office. The Region I staff represents the finest in Churchwide and inter-synodical cooperation. For 1991, our share of the Region I ministry costs is $94,490 of our synodical budget, a bargain for a kaleidoscope of skills. We are especially fortunate to have the following individuals and their support staffs available to assist our congregations: (continued next page)

VOICE YOUR OPINION REGARDING CABLE T.V.

Now's your chance to express your opinion about your local cable T.V. network. In Seattle, both TCI and Viacom franchises are up for renewal for a 15-year contract. There isn't much you can do about rates, but everything else is negotiable, including programming.

Debra Lewis, cable coordinator for Seattle, wants to hear from the community. Her address is Department of Licenses, Municipal Building, Room 102, 600 Fourth Ave., Seattle, WA 98104.

We also need your help to put Vision Interfaith Satellite Network (VISN) "on the air" in Seattle, Everett, Tacoma, and surrounding communities. VISN is a full-time (24 hours, 7 days) cable TV network, which offers a wide range of faith and values programming. When you pay your cable bill, please write "I WANT VISN" across the front of it. And write a personal letter to the two major cable systems in Washington State: Eric Kronen, Viacom Cablevision, PO Box 5187, Everett, WA 98206; or Bill Bennett, TCI of Seattle, 1140 N 94th St, Seattle, WA 98103. In your letter you might indicate, "I want to see VISN on our local cable system because ..." Write your own personal reasons. You may want to include your faith background and why it is important to you, your family, and the community.

NEW VIDEO RESOURCES

A new video from the ELCA Foundation is entitled "Where There's a Will". Through a skit and personal witness of Bishop Chilstrom, viewers are prompted to make a will (estate plan) to complete their personal stewardship of resources for the on-going care of family, friends, and the mission of the gospel. (continued)

Another new video from the Commission for Women is entitled "Stand and Fight", a 1989 episode of the television series, "Designing Women". This resource models a way that our congregations can use a so-called secular product as a Christian Education resource. The video explores incidences of violence against women.

Other videos now available at the Region I office include "Namibia: Free at Last", "Tanzania: the People, the Land, the Church", "Vignettes from Africa", and "South Africa". Call Christine at 624-0093 to borrow any of these videos.

VIDEOS AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE

Two full-length movies commissioned over 30 years ago by a cooperative Lutheran church agency have now been released for home video.

MARTIN LUTHER, about the birth of the Protestant Reformation, was released in 1953 and has since been shown around the world. In 1954 the film won two Academy Award nominations.

QUESTION 7 focuses on the trials of Christians in East Germany. It appeared in theaters just months before the Berlin Wall was erected. The film is a docu-drama depicting the government and party pressures put on youth to reject Christian values in favor of the claims of Marxism.

The videos can be ordered from Vision Video, 2030 Wentz Church Road, Worcester, PA 19490, 800/523-0226. For MARTIN LUTHER, a discussion guide is included.

LIFE ENRICHMENT EDUCATION

Lutheran Social Services Northwest Area Office announces a 1991-92 catalog of Educational Resources now available for congregations. If you are in the process of planning your adult forums or special events for next year, the Life Enrichment program can provide you with the following:

*One-hour presentations, weekend retreats, workshops, or multi-week series on family life, social growth, or personal growth issues.

*A lending library of videos addressing family communication, teen stress, parenting concerns.

*Consultation on developing adult education programs.

Please call Fran Davis, 672-6009, for a catalog or to arrange educational events.

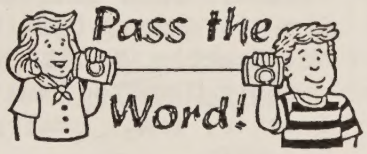
MORE ANNOUNCEMENTS

A MUSICAL RESOURCE FOR CONGREGATIONS

The Lutheran Bible Institute is again offering the resource, SERVANT SONG, a team of six recent LBI alumni who will carry out a full-time music ministry from September, 1991, through July, 1992. Their music is suited for all ages, with a strong emphasis on youth ministry. They can be utilized on a one- to three-day basis, providing congregational music concerts and various youth events, including retreats and workshops. SERVANT SONG often participates in worship services.

If you would like to schedule them for an event in your congregation or cluster, call John Foss at 800/843-5659.

PURCHASE MEAL COUPONS FOR THE HOMELESS



Lutheran Compass Center in downtown Seattle is offering a meal coupon program for the homeless. Individuals or churches may purchase a coupon book of 10 coupons for $15.00. The coupons can be given to homeless people in the areas of downtown Seattle, University District, or Capitol Hill who come into church offices or approach individuals on the street asking for assistance. The coupons can be redeemed at the Compass Center, and offer the alternative of a nutritious meal.

Please publicize the meal coupon program in your congregational newsletters, and ask that checks be made payable to Lutheran Compass Center, with a notation for the meal coupon program. Thank you.

YOUTH NEWS

Registration closes August 5 for the Youth Leadership Training School West, to be held August 15-18 at PLU in Tacoma. This outstanding, content-filled program is designed to provide teenage youth leaders and adult advisors (up to three youth and one adult from each congregation) with "hands-on" resources and training to strengthen or start youth ministry in their congregations. For further information, contact the LTS West Coordinator, Sandra Kreis, at Mt. View Lutheran, Puyallup, 863-5171.

MORE YOUTH NEWS

Fall Regional Youth Gathering--Two outstanding speakers have been named for the fall Region 1 youth gathering over Thanksgiving weekend, Nov. 29-Dec. 1. SEAN MCMILLAN, well known youth leader; SIGI SANDROCK, co-pastor of First Lutheran Church, Port Orchard; and MIKE YACONELLI, founder of Youth Specialties, have been named as featured speakers for STRENGTH FOR THE JOURNEY. High school students and advisors from throughout Region I are urged to include this event in their fall plans. This year it will be held in Spokane. It will also include special music by David Lee Brown, workshops, and servant projects.

CLERGY SPOUSES SAVE THIS DATE

The next gathering of clergy spouses will be October 19 at Camano Lutheran Church from 9:30 am to 2:00 pm. Please save this date on your calendar, and more information will come later.

LEARNING PLAN WORKSHOPS

Lutheran Institute for Theological Education

Designed for pastors and associates in ministry, the Learning Plan Workshops are a follow-up to the Growth in Excellence in Ministry (GEM) introductory event. The workshops will assist church leaders 1) to identify their personal and professional needs for growth in their context of ministry, 2) to take responsibility for their own professional growth by developing a personal learning plan, and 3) to help discover available growth resources.

The workshops will be led by teams of ELCA/LC-MS pastors. Cost is $10 tuition plus a $10 workbook; lunch on your own. Three weeks advance registration is
